50 CENTS PER MONTH

HEROIC RACE ON TO SAVE CREW OF SUBMARINE

BARE CHANCE EXISTS SOME MAY STILL BE LIVING

HONOLULU, March 27.—The twenty-one men in the foundered submarine F-4 have a fighting chance for life.

The dredger California, with elaborate apparatus for lifting vessels, is greatly augmenting this chance, and a few hours will tell the tale.

The California today, with the Alert, will make an effort to lift the F-4.

Chains are now being slung under the submerged hull.

If there is a man aboard with a spark of life he will be rushed to the Army Department hospital here and subjected to heroic treatment.

Colonel Eibert, in charge of the hospital, has made adequate arrangements for the possible resuscitation of the F-4's crew.

Local authorities, however, hold out but scant hope for the members of the submarine's crew.

Tests are being made to determine the exact positions, fore and aft, of the vessel, that the cables may be correctly drawn. The vessel will then be slowly raised and dragged into shallow water.

The work is extremely slow. The absence of a diving bell has greatly hampered the work of rescue.

Diver Agaz is the hero of the hour. Despite the lack of proper equipment and with only a helmet he went down 220 feet and remained down five minutes. Later he made several other trips below the surface.

It developed today that an acid explosion aboard the F-4 March 6 may be in some way connected with the disaster, which threatens to develop into the worst in the history of the navy.

At that time one man was injured and side plates blown out and floor plates damaged. Admiral Moore regarded the damage as unimportant and had the vessel repaired at Pearl Harbor and placed in service.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—Under a full head of steam, the revenue cutter McCullough is today steaming toward Monterey Bay to investigate the presence in that harbor of the Japanese cruiser Chitosa, which, according to telephone messages, twice entered the bay yesterday. The Chitosa is believed to be annoying the Red Stack tug Sea Rover and two barges on their way to salvage the Japanese cruiser Asama which lies aground in Turtle Bay off the Mexican coast. One of the barges sprung a leak, it is said, and was towed into Monterey Bay for repairs. The Chitosa followed the Sea Rover into the bay, but did not sea again after a few hours.

Whole City Joins in Heart and Soul to Make Occasion Long Remembered One

Parade Plans Well Under Way Already; How to Win a Prize; There Are 150

Extensive plans have been made and are being made for the success of Dollar Day, Saturday, April 3. Merchants all over the city are joining in with enthusiasm. Wednesday, March 31, will be one of the big days of the preparatory campaign.

Today a committee from the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, composed of J. P. Baumgartner and J. Clyde Horton, is making a "get acquainted" tour of Orange county, following the route that will be taken by the parade Wednesday.

The committee is visiting every newspaper in the county, arranging for advertising and enlisting their support and good will for Dollar Day.

The committee is making arrangements for luncheon at Anaheim and is looking after other details of the trip.

Heading the big automobile parade at the city hall Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock will be a Cadillac Eight, with R. H. Kelly at the wheel. With Kelly will ride R. L. Bisby, the official announcer. A drum corps of three drums and two fifes will occupy the back seat.

The William A. Lutz Company service car will accompany the automobile parade and expert mechanics will be in readiness to offer whatever assistance may be necessary.

Itinerary
Following is the itinerary of the automobile parade: City Hall, Santa Ana, to Tustin, three miles; to El Modena, three miles; to Orange, three miles; to Olive, four miles; to Placentia, five miles; to Fullerton, three miles; to Anaheim, three miles. The trip to Anaheim, where luncheon will be had, will be about twenty-four miles.

Leaving Anaheim at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, the automobiles will go to Garden Grove, six miles; Westminster, six and a half miles; Huntington Beach, seven and a half miles; Fairview, six miles; Newport Beach, four miles; Balboa, two miles; Delhi, 11 miles; Santa Ana, two miles. Approximately seventy miles will be made on the trip.

Interest in Yells
The M. and M. announced today that all copies of proposed yells to be used by the merchants on Wednesday's auto trip must be in the hands of either R. L. Bisby at the White Cross Drug Store or Secretary Metzgar of the M. and M. not later than 9 o'clock next Tuesday morning. The public is taking a great deal of interest in the yell contest and a large number of good ones have already been submitted.

The winner of the $2 prize in the yell contest will be announced in the evening papers Tuesday.

The committee to judge the yells submitted will be chosen at the M. and M. meeting Monday evening.

Will Boost

Special literature will be distributed by the merchants on the automobile tour through the county to advertise Dollar Day bargains in Santa Ana.

Every automobile in the parade will be decorated with banners boasting Dollar Day.

Military authorities have informed Morgenthau that they will begin an investigation and punish those guilty of precipitating the alleged massacres.

5,900,000 MEN LINE UP FOR BATTLE

To Aid Orange Fishermen

GOVERNOR ASKED PROTECT FISH INDUSTRY OF COUNTY

Gov. Johnson and the State Fish and Game Commission are being appealed to in a fight started to protect the fishing industry of Orange county. The state is asked to make war on the practice of San Pedro fishing boats that come to the waters along the shores of this county and there, in violation of the state law, operate the pernicious and devastating drag net. Among those who are taking the matter up with Governor Johnson is J. P. Baumgartner, editor of the Register and a member of the State Conservation Commission.

The attention of state officials is to be called to the fact that for the last eighteen months Italian and Slavonian commercial fishermen from the Los Angeles port have been dragging the life out of the fishing grounds of the county. The ultimate end of the raids made by the law-breakers is the death of the fishing industry. Coast waters will be cleared of fish, just as in most of Southern California wild game has been wiped out, and Orange county men are taking action to prevent such a development.

The San Pedrans have no thought for the morrow, so far as the Orange county coast is concerned. If the waters are cleaned out of fish, their fast boats will carry them to other fishing grounds. Orange county fishermen look at the matter in a different light. They are located in this county; they use lawful lines and nets only; they want to go on year after year earning an honest living, but know full well that the waters in which they use their lawful nets will soon bring poor returns for their labor; they are up against unfair competition, as with their law-abiding methods they cannot make anywhere near the catches that are made by the craft that use the illegal paranzella net, also known as the trawl and the drag net.

Within the last two days several letters have gone from Santa Ana to Sacramento and to the Fish and Game Commission office in Los Angeles, urging state action to put a stop to the dragging.

Remedy Suggested

Victor Walker and T. E. Stephenson, as members of the committee appointed at a meeting of those interested in fish and game to look over fish and game bills presented to the legislature, today sent letters to State Senator Anderson and Assemblyman Burke urging them to put through a measure making it unlawful for any person to have a drag net in his possession. Such a law would be effective in stopping the use of the net. At present a man must be caught using the net within three miles of the shore, before he can be prosecuted.

Today J. P. Baumgartner, editor of the Register, received a letter from Victor Walker, one of the leaders in the fight that is being made for the conservation of the fishing industry of this county. In that letter the situation is set forth clearly by Walker, and the editor of the Register is asked to carry the message to the chief executive of the state. Immediately upon receipt of the letter, Mr. Baumgartner wrote to the governor, laying the matter before him. The letter received from Victor Walker was forwarded to the governor. The editor of the Register declared that he would do all in his power to help the cause.

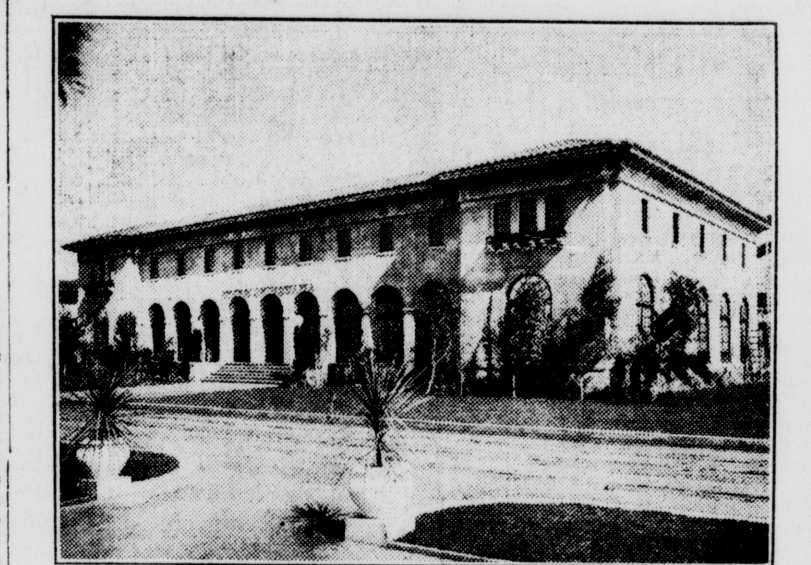

Since the letter referred to sets forth various angles of the condition in a clear and forceful way, it is published herewith:

Walker's Statement

Santa Ana, Cal., March 26, 1915. Mr. J. P. Baumgartner,

Daily Register, Santa Ana, Cal.
Dear Mr. Baumgartner: Knowing your interest in Orange county industries and also knowing that you are a member of the State Conservation

HANDSOME Nevada State Building at the San Diego Exposition, which will be dedicated Sunday, April 2. The building was informally opened a fortnight ago with a housewarming, but this will be its formal dedication to the public.

SAN DIEGO, March 27.—A large delegation from Nevada, headed by Governor Emmett D. Boyle, will arrive in San Diego April 1 for the dedication of the handsome Nevada building at the San Diego Exposition April 2. In the Nevada party besides Governor Boyle are State Treasurer Edward Malley, State Controller George Cole, several legislators and other members of the administration and prominent Nevada citizens.

Governor Boyle will officiate at the dedication of the Nevada building on the day following his arrival here and the attendant ceremonies promise to be of much interest to all Nevada people and former residents of that state as well as exposition visitors.

President G. A. Davison of the exposition, assisted by I. G. Lewis, president of the Nevada Society in San Diego, and Mrs. A. M. Wave, hostess at the Nevada building, have arranged an appropriate program.

The Nevada building is considered to be one of the most attractive of the state buildings on the ground. It was informally opened with a housewarming about two weeks ago and all of the exhibits are in place so that visitors to the exposition have been able to see right along the wonderful resources of the state. The building is situated on the Alameda, which is in the heart of the agricultural exhibit at the exposition so that its location calls particular attention to the great agricultural possibilities of Nevada.

Dollar Day April 3—

SANS PANTS AND COAT, IN RACE WITH 'JITNEY'

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—The sight of an entirely nude man racing through the streets in the van of a cluster of jitney buses and policemen, startled pedestrians today. The garbless one dodged into the city hall and up the stairs leading to the mayor's office. He was cornered in a corridor, and after being properly draped was taken to the Central Emergency hospital. It is believed he escaped from the Detention hospital.

Dollar Day April 3—

WEATHER FORECAST

For Santa Ana and Vicinity—Generally cloudy tonight and Sunday; light southwest winds.

AIRMEN SLAY AND MAIM; PEACE NOT YET RIPE

PETROGRAD, March 27.—Three million Russians are rolling like a wave upon the Austro-German forces along the Carpathians from the Donajec river to Bukovina, driving their foes to the fortified passes on the crest.

To meet this the Germans are withdrawing their major forces from the Vistula-Nieman front, where the coming of spring causes a cessation of operations.

The war office is informed from the Poland front that there are but 580,000 Germans left there.

As the total strength of the Germans in the eastern theater was estimated at 3,000,000, officials believe at least 2,420,000 are now concentrated at the Donajec and Carpathian front.

VIENNA (Berlin to Sayville by wireless), March 27.—The government today issued an order regulating the use of bread and flour and other foodstuffs. It will issue tickets for presentation when making purchases, as is being done in Germany.

BERLIN (via The Hague), March 27. President Wilson's newest peace move has met with failure.

Colonel E. M. House, the president's personal emissary, will leave for Switzerland tomorrow, convinced that for the present peace is out of the question.

Despite Washington denials, House came to Europe, it is learned authoritatively, to sound the warning nations on the subject and conferred with British Foreign Minister Grey, Premier Viviani of France and German Foreign Secretary von Jagow.

Expressions of appreciation of Wilson's kindly interest followed, but House was informed there could be no possible compromise at this time.

CONSTANTINOPLE (via Berlin), March 27.—The resumption of the Turkish campaign in Egypt is a success, it is officially announced today. Reports are given of the destruction of a British column near Medan and of the repulse of the British in Sjuac-bia.

VIENNA (via Berlin), March 27.—The repulse of all Russian attacks in the Carpathians is claimed today in a statement by the war office. In Bukovina, it is declared, the Austrians have assumed the offensive and driven the left wing of the Russian army back to the Dniester river.

The town of Zelescekyi, twenty-six miles northwest of Czernowitz, the Russian base of operations on the Dniester, is today being shelled by the Austrians. Still another force of Austrians and Germans is reported advancing on the Russian fortress of Chotin.

KIEF (via Petrograd), March 27.—General Kusmanek, the Austrian commander of the fallen fortress of Przemyśl, arrived here today as a prisoner of war, accompanied by a single aide. He is being shown every courtesy.

BERLIN (by wireless to Sayville), March 27.—The capture by the French troops of Sartmannswellerkopf, in Alsace, after a battle which lasted five days, is admitted by the war office here today.

PARIS, March 27.—Three children were killed today by a German aviator bombing Willers, northwest of Thann.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 27.—That the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, docked here, may attempt a dash to sea was indicated today by the elaborate preparations made by the military and naval authorities to thwart such a move. Steam is up and smoke flowing from her funnels, although she is still fast to her moorings. Collector of the Port, Hamilton declines to say whether the

FALL OF TANK HASTENS WORK ON NEW TANK

GARDEN GROVE, March 27.—The people of Garden Grove can truthfully say they have the driest town in Orange county, as a result of the complete collapse of the Garden Grove Water Company's tank and tower Thursday morning at 7 o'clock.

The tower and tank had been in use for many years and had become rotten at the base and could no longer stand the strain. Mr. Elliott had just finished filling the tank and was standing at the window of his home when he noticed the tower begin to waver and for a moment thought his eyes had deceived him, but it only took a few moments to convince him that it was not an optical delusion, as timber, water-pipe, etc., lay strewn on the ground for a distance of about one hundred feet.

The water company feels very thankful the crash came as it did when no one was in reach of the flying debris. Mrs. Elliott and her son, Eddie, were working in the garden beside the plant during the morning and had just left and gone far enough away to escape being caught beneath the wreckage.

The only living thing in the wake of the deluge of water and broken timber was a pet pig sheltered in a sty near by. No one is yet found who can interpret the pig's squeals to determine just what he thought was coming. He was dug out and it was found that he had not a scratch on him. The plant going out of commission at this time makes it somewhat inconvenient for the water company. It would have had the new plant in running order in about two months and would have discontinued the use of the old one at that time. While the wreck means quite a loss for the water company, yet it is a good thing for the town, as it will be able to enjoy a good water system that much sooner. The company feels sure that the citizens of Garden Grove will rally to its aid and be patient while the plant is being erected with four and six-inch mains leading from the plant.

The new company appreciates very much the courtesy of the Home Tract Company in so promptly turning water into the mains to supply the people for the present.

J. A. Knapp, president of the Garden Grove Water Company, thinks a similar arrangement can be made with the plant located on the Cook addition.

Tustin Budget

Edited by Miss
Florence StoneTWO AFFAIRS
ARE PLANNEDTustin Women Are to Provide
Two Unusually Interesting
Entertainments

At the Parent-Teacher meeting last Friday afternoon two most interesting entertainments were planned. First, an entertainment to be given by the Ebell Society in the new school building for the benefit of the Santa Ana Day Nursery. The Tustin school children are to help in various ways and are to receive a certain percent of the proceeds to pay off their remaining indebtedness for the eagle in the auditorium. The general plans for this entertainment were arranged at the Parent-Teacher meeting and the date has since been decided upon as April 9.

The program is in the hands of Mrs. James Rice and Mrs. S. W. Nau and promises to be one of unusual interest. Notice of the details will appear later.

Another item which will be of great interest to all who are interested in the school, and that includes everybody, is a May Day Festival.

Plans are on foot to make May Day this year at the new school house one which will be different from anything ever before seen in Tustin. Not only the Tustin district, but the surrounding districts are to be invited to participate in an all-day affair. Making May Day a general holiday, the surrounding districts are going to be invited to spend the day in Tustin.

In the morning there will be an interesting program in connection with three May poles in charge of the school.

At noon there is to be a picnic dinner, everybody bringing his or her lunch, and free coffee will be served by the school.

In the afternoon there will be a program of athletics, making it competitive among the pupils of all the schools who may attend.

The pupils of the different schools will be asked to compete in a wild flower exhibit. One room will be devoted to wild flowers.

Individuals everywhere in this part of the county will be asked to take part in a cut-flower exhibit and another room of the school building will be filled with cut-flowers.

If the ranchers and citrus men can be interested an exhibit of fruits will also be shown.

The teachers are beginning to organize and train the children for the exercises.

The lunch tables have been provided for and other arrangements are started.

EDITORIAL

NOTES FROM ABROAD

The following quotations are from the current number of The Nation, which gives some interesting "Notes from Abroad." They note the changes being brought about by the war.

"One of the by-products of the war is the establishment in London of two lycées—one for boys and one for girls—to provide a secondary education for such children of French and Belgian refugees as are unable to attend English schools owing to the difficulty of the language.

"At Eton, the home of venerable traditions, a house has been set apart for Belgian boys under the care of a Belgian tutor.

"A nappy experiment has met one phase of need caused by the war. There is a surplus in England of cabinet makers, but a shortage of workers in leather. A school has opened in Toynebee Hall to teach leather stitching to men, mostly over 40 years of age. Every man who has had a month at the school has found good regular work at his new trade.

"The president of the British Local Government Board cast a lurid light on the cost of the war when he said: "If any one had generously made a donation of a thousand pounds to any service connected with it he would have the satisfaction of knowing that it was equivalent to carrying it on for a minute and a half.

"If the donor of a thousand pounds is chilled by knowledge of the infinitesimal value of his gift, how will it be with the patriot subscriber of a ten-pound note or a feeble five?

"Think what an appalling bill of costs will have to be paid at the bidding of the military caste that will have to be footed at a time when these countries are drained almost dry by the expenditure of blood money.

"Nobody denies that thinking people have been asking fundamental questions about God and Christian civilization. Everywhere among the warring nations churches are crowded daily as well as on Sunday. The indifference are again turning to the houses of prayer.

"Belgium's quickened religious fervor is the most explicable of all; for adversity ever turns men to God. Germany's rationalism is turning again to the simple devotion of its fathers. Russia is sure that this is a 'holy war' and that it will result in the sacred consummation of the return of the cross to the mosque of St. Sophia in Constantinople."

RECIPE TO CLEAR
A PIMPLY SKINPimples Are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin
Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood, and is excellent for the kidneys as well.—Advertisement.

AN ELECTRIC LIGHT
POLE FELL ACROSS
IRA LECK'S BUGGY

Ira Leck, deputy county assessor, met with an unusual experience when he was in town on Monday on the business of assessing the Tustin property. He was in a one-horse buggy and hitched the horse to an electric lighting pole in front of the bicycle store on Main street.

The pole proved to be rotten at the base, and it did not take a very hard pull by the horse to bring it over. It fell across the front of the buggy, the end of the pole coming dangerously near the large glass in the front of the bicycle store, but fortunately missed it by about a half inch.

Mr. Leck went about the business of assessing for several hours on foot while his buggy was being fixed.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

Tustin W. C. T. U.

There was an attendance of about thirty ladies at the W. C. T. U. meeting Thursday afternoon to hear Mrs. J. N. Anderson's talk on "Medical Temperance."

Mrs. Anderson began her talk by stating that she was not going to make statements as coming from herself, but was going to read many quotations from the very highest authorities in the land in bringing out the latest opinions of these high authorities on the subject of using alcohol as a medicine.

Her subject was logically arranged and the usage in hospital work was the first division. She gave statistics from some of the largest and most successful hospitals in the cure of diseases in the world, which show that they have been highly successful in the practice of total abstinence methods. One London hospital has found no use for alcohol in forty years.

The next division of the subject was regarding the opinions of eminent physicians all over the world have been obtained and the verdict from exact investigation is that alcohol is not a food nor a stimulant, but a poison and ought to be retired from the list. Dr. Grenfeld in his ministrations to the people of the frozen North where life is hard and privations great, used no alcohol.

An eminent physician in Italy where many people live a life of ease and luxury in a climate similar to that of California gives his testimony that it can do no good, but positive harm.

In the references the statement was made that the only time its use is advisable, is in the event it is necessary to preserve a body after death.

By special request of Mrs. Anderson the meeting was opened by singing "The Great Physician."

The roll call was responded to with scripture quotations, followed by reports of secretary, treasurer and committees.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. C. F. Smith, who read scripture lessons which offer good health and long life as a reward for those who live pure lives.

Near the close of the meeting Miss Mabel Logan sang a beautiful song, "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep," accompanied by Miss Gertrude Utt.

The large, pleasant room at the home of Mrs. C. E. Utt, where the meeting was held was ornate with lovely cream colored and pink roses.

A Pleasant Week-End

Miss Laura Lepper and Henry Burmaster of Los Angeles and Miss Minna Kopplin of Santa Ana were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Currier at the week-end.

The whole party were old neighbors back in Minnesota. They have all learned to sing "I Love You California."

Old Fashioned Social

A thoroughly enjoyable program at the "old fashioned" social at the Presbyterian church last Friday night entertained and amused a church full of people.

Mrs. P. H. Ebel opened the program with a pleasing piano piece.

S. E. Tingley came next with a song accompanied by Miss Margaret Tingley on the piano.

Mrs. C. E. Utt's recitation was truly appropriate for the occasion, impersonating a country woman whose husband had obtained a patent. Grown suddenly rich, he had taken her to the city and surrounded her with luxuries. She was sick of it all and wanted to go back to the old home where they were so happy and so poor.

An old fashioned song about "Sweet Ella" was sung as a duet by Mrs. F. T. Poble and Mrs. Effie Slusser.

Miss Lida Turner's recitation of the visit of the trustee to the district school was much enjoyed.

This part of the program was closed with a song by Mrs. George Rhel. A series of charades followed, at the close of which the company were invited to the social room where delicious ginger bread and coffee were served.

In the center of the social room a barrel was placed and all those who wished to contribute to the missionary fund of the Christian Endeavor Society were asked to put their pennies in the barrel. A very liberal response was made to this invitation. The social was given by the honorary members of the Christian Endeavor.

The members of the decorating committee were to be congratulated upon the arrangement of lovely roses and trailing vines, which lent unusual beauty to the interior of the church.

Reception to Mr. and Mrs. Ladieu

A reception to the new pastor of the Advent Christian church and his wife was held Wednesday night at the parsonage.

The rooms were filled to overflowing with members of the church anxious to welcome the new pastor.

All joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," led by Harry Hanson. W. D. Bowman followed with prayer.

Rev. W. L. Shatto gave greetings from the church.

Rev. W. S. McDougal, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was not able to attend, but sent greetings from the sister church by the elder, A. E. Bennett.

A welcome was given by a former pastor of the church, Rev. F. L. Richardson, and a welcome also from the superintendents of the Sunday school, Messrs Hunt and Hanson.

Some cordial words of greeting were given by C. E. Utt and also by Mrs. F. L. Richardson for the missionary society and Mrs. Sarah Brown for the Tustin W. C. T. U.

The home was beautifully decorated with lilies and roses.

An abundance of delicious refreshments consisted of sandwiches, coffee, cake, fruitade and crystallized walnuts.

There were about seventy adults present. The young people enjoyed part of the evening on the lawn.

Coreopsis Club

Mrs. C. O. Artz's pretty bungalow was all aglow with wild flowers and California poppies last Wednesday afternoon for the meeting of the Coreopsis Club. Those members of the club who live out on the hills came laden with the most beautiful wild flowers.

With the usual fancy work, music and conversation the afternoon was pleasantly spent.

Delicious ice cream, cake and punch were served by the hostess.

Those present were Mrs. Charles Lambert, Mrs. Ed Smith, Mrs. Fenlon Matthews, Mrs. Elsworth Mount, Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. Ida King, Mrs. Frank Stearns, Mrs. W. H. Stearns, Mrs. J. D. Howes, Mrs. Hart and Miss Eva Stearns.

Cincinnati Club Entertainment

Mrs. Fred Beckman and Mrs. Harry Peiper entertained the Cincinnati Club at their home in Tustin, Thursday.

A party of ladies from Los Angeles, Alhambra and Pasadena arrived early in the morning by automobile. The beauty of the lovely morning was immensely enjoyed on the trip out.

The odor of roses and wistaria pervaded the Beckman home and greeted the guests as they arrived.

Dinner was served at noon at a table centered with a bank of wistaria. Its delicate lavender shade was a delight to the eye. The dinner consisted of four delicious courses.

The guests were Mrs. M. Schroeder and Mrs. H. Diebenkorn of Alhambra, Mrs. E. Stallard, Miss Katie Schenck of Los Angeles, Mrs. E. J. Keiffer and Mrs. M. E. Diebold and little daughter June, of Highland Park. Mrs. H. Romer, Mrs. C. E. Utt, Miss Minnie C. Childs and Miss Gertrude Utt of Tustin were also guests at dinner with the hostesses, Mrs. Beckman and Mrs. Pieper.

The afternoon was spent in merry chat over fancy work and the party from the city was entertained at tea and returned to their homes in the evening.

Visit From Boyhood Friend

Albert Fuller had for his guest last week from Thursday until Monday a boyhood friend, Frank Berger of Detroit, Mich. With Mr. Fuller's family they took a delightful trip on Saturday to Laguna and from there to Serra, San Juan Capistrano and San Juan Hot Springs. A part of the trip was over ground where they hunted together as boys, which made it unusually enjoyable for the friends.

Attend Installation

A delegation from the Tustin Presbyterian church went over by automobile to Orange Wednesday night to attend the installation of Rev. James S. Spear as pastor of the Orange Presbyterian church. The party consisted of Rev. W. S. McDougal, E. J. Cranston, W. L. Leiby, C. A. Marcy, Chas. White.

The installation occurred at a men's meeting. There were about 200 present. A banquet followed the ceremonies.

The Cloverleaf Club

The girls of Mrs. P. H. Ebel's Sunday school class met at her home last Saturday afternoon to organize as a club. Their emblem will be a clover leaf.

Miss Hazel Bailey was elected president, Miss Irene Grisct, vice president, Miss Bernice House, treasurer; Miss Wilhelmina Bennett, secretary; Miss Dorothy Jones, assistant secretary.

The object of the club is mutual benefit and improvement. Definite plans will develop later.

There were about twelve young ladies present at the meeting. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. S. McDougal.

Household Economics

The Tustin Household Economics Section will be entertained by Mrs. B. H. Sharpless and Mrs. Charles Bowman next Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Bowman's home.

A Pleasant House Party

Miss Ethel Phillips and her friend, Miss Tillie Jacobson, of Los Angeles, came down for the week-end with Mrs. M. E. Phillips last Saturday.

The party was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crozier Phillips of Santa Ana and Mrs. Phillips' aunt, Miss Humphries of Long Beach, on Sunday.

The beautiful flowers around the pioneer Phillips home are in their sweetest bloom and lent their fragrance and beauty to the enjoyment of this happy house party last Sunday. Miss Humphries left for Long Beach in the late afternoon.

Shower for Miss Anna Walker

A shower for Miss Anna Walker was given by Mrs. Clyde Deardorf, Miss Beulah Thomas and Miss Helene McNeal at the pretty new home of Mrs. Deardorf in Tustin Thursday afternoon.

The lovely rooms were bright with scarlet geraniums and ferns.

The miscellaneous shower of articles was arranged on a pretty table and the whole party immensely enjoyed seeing the April bride-to-be open the parcels. Miss Walker is to marry Clyde Flower of the Irvine ranch.

Those present were Mesdames Frank Thomas, J. H. Walker, Will Adams, Harvey Bennett, Oscar Leiby, Clyde Deardorf; Misses Mary Walker, Lillian Walker, Beulah Thomas, Gladys Thomas, Mabel Rhel, Macie Deardorf, Marguerite Wallace and Helene McNeal.

Delicious refreshments of salad, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream, wafers and cake were served.

ORANGE TEACHERS SEE

DOLLAR DAY—ITS MEANING AND PURPOSE

A very few people may see in Dollar Day "merely a money making scheme." Even a considerable number of people may regard it in the light of "only a clever advertising stunt."

Both of these estimates fall far short of the whole scope, the main purpose, the principal effect of Dollar Day.

Of course, incidentally and ultimately, the merchants and business men and newspapers hope that Dollar Day will pay them—indirectly; but none of them expects to derive immediate or direct profit from the enterprise.

Dollar Day mainly is a public-spirited undertaking. Above everything else its purpose is and its effect will be to promote the best welfare of the entire community, socially, commercially and industrially.

Some people may not realize it, but there is such a thing as "The Religion of Business." The leading editorial in Hearst's Magazine for March, by Elbert Hubbard, bears that title. It is a remarkable editorial, and if it were not copyrighted we would print it in full. It emphasizes the fact that business is the science of human service, and that the raw stock of business is friendship. "Business builds, constructs, creates, develops. Business means good roads, electric signs, cluster lights, schools, playgrounds, parks, gymnasiums, trees, flowers, gardens, homes, beautiful back yards, good plumbing, fresh air, pure water, electric fans, sure and quick transportation, courteous telephone service, hygiene and sanitation in a thousand forms." More especially for Santa Ana, business means a new hotel, a Y. M. C. A. building, and all the other things good and needful on which our hearts and minds are fixed.

Men sometimes say, "I'm not in business for my health," meaning, of course, that they are in business to make money. But the man who is not in business for his health—that is, for his general well-being and his neighbor's—will soon not be in business for anything.

"The Golden Rule is today playing a big part in commerce. We are doing unto others as we would be done by for the best possible business reason—because it pays."

Canvassing for sympathy. All kinds of schemes are worked on the public for raising money. Perhaps more than usual appear at a time when business is slow and more or less people unemployed. One hesitates to condemn any honest work. Yet many little enterprises are so clearly non-productive that sensible people may well hesitate to undertake them.

For instance, take the annual army of young men and women who start out as agents, for books and other articles, frequently giving the excuse that they wish to earn money for an education.

It would be interesting if one could know how many of these young hopefuls acquire in this way the funds that they desire. Frequently it seems practically a case of begging. In such cases they know they would have no chance of succeeding in it as a purely business proposition.

"SIMPLIFIED" SPELLING
BOSTON, March 27.—Although Boston is famous for the education it dispenses in its schools, a youngster in a grammar grade used "unadulterated" simplified spelling in his geography paper the other day and received the highest marking in his class. "Yourup," was his way of spelling Europe. Outside of this little slip-up his answers were all correct.

What We Worship

WHAT is it that we worship? Is it mere Power? No. Power may awe us, crush us, command us, but never yet has it won the worship of the heart. Is it Knowledge? No. An infinite intellect may invite admiration, but we do not worship Wisdom. Is it Vastness? Not so. Read Tennyson's poem on Vastness and you will see how a cold, bare infinitude, so far from winning the love of man, strikes him dumb with terror. What, then, do we worship? Reverently let us say that though God speak with the tongues of lightning, though He have all power so that He could remove mountains or hurl suns into space, yet, though He have all knowledge and understand all mysteries, and have not Love, we cannot worship Him. Only Love can win love, and if God be not Infinite Love, we cannot love Him, albeit we may cower before Him, trembling and afraid. Love, only Love—Love infinitesimally vast—that is what our own hearts tell us to seek till we find and trust unto the uttermost.

What, then do we worship when in a mood dross-drained and exalting, the heart has its way? Think it all through, up one side and down the other, and you will find that our ideal, our dream, our hope, that to which we pray, is no other than the spirit that lived in Jesus, shone in His face, wrought in His works, and spoke in His words. If, when we look out upon the universe, now lucid and lovely, now dark and terrible, we can trust the future, even as a little child, it is because we can trust that Spirit. The Spirit of Jesus in its strength, its gentleness, its august and awful humility, its incredible patience, its fathomless pity, its relentless love, its all-forgiving mercy, its victorious valor, its purity, its gladness—that is what is meant by the Deity of Jesus.

ness proposition. By suggesting the motive of sympathy for a young person, they do get some help that they could not always get on the basis of the attractiveness of the book or other articles offered.

It is an open question if it is wise for young people to canvass on this basis. In the long run they will win out in this world only by offering people the things they want at a price that competes successfully with other sellers. To raise money for an education on any other basis must give them a false idea of life, that success is to be won by other means than merit.

There are plenty of ways for ambitious young people to earn money. Let them offer the world some service that it really wants. Able bodied young men can always work their way through college by taking jobs on farms, and girls by waiting on hotel tables, selling food, or performing domestic service. In such ways they render a real service, and have the self respecting feeling that they are asking for no sympathy, but are standing on their own merits.

BARKER RUNS MAXWELL TO TOP OF HILL

Piloting his stock Maxwell Twenty-five with all the skill and determination for which he is noted, Charles Barker, salesman for Charles B. Perry, Santa Ana agent for the Maxwell cars, at 12:30 today set a new mark in hill climbing in this territory by putting his car nearly over the brow of the hill at the top of the El Modena grade.

Barker used a Maxwell that had been run about 3000 miles. The car was well loosened up and worked beautifully. Had Barker not blown out the left rear tire on a sharp rock he would undoubtedly have gone clear to the top of the hill. As it was, he succeeded in driving the Maxwell within about fifteen feet of the top of the testing hill—further, he claims, than any other car has yet gone up the hill.

The car bounced fearfully as it was being driven up the incline. At times all four wheels were as much as twelve inches off the ground. Anyone who knows the lay of the land, or rather the rocks, at the top of the El Modena grade will appreciate the wonderful performance that was made by the sturdy little car.

Barker is elated over his exploit. All he regrets is that the blowing out of the tire prevented him from going on up to the extreme brow of the hill.

HER HUSBAND GOES DOWN IN A SUBMARINE

William Nelson was among the three Los Angeles youths who went down with the ill-fated submarine which sank yesterday morning while at target practice off the coast of Honolulu. The unfortunate man is the husband of Mrs. Elsie Ebright Nelson, the son-in-law of Mrs. Ida Ebright of 233 Thirty-seventh avenue, Los Angeles and the great-grandson-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. HUPMOBILE IS IN NEW HANDS IN SANTA ANA

With the arrival of W. M. Henry, Santa Ana this week acquired one of the most successful Hupmobile agents and a man who has been prominently identified with the motor industry for many years.

The new agency, known as the W. R. Henry Company, and located at 209 North Main street, is thoroughly equipped to meet all the demands of local Hupmobile owners.

Frank P. Harris, manager of agencies for the Greer-Robbins Company, Hupmobile distributors at Los Angeles, in selecting Henry for this territory did so after canvassing the situation very thoroughly. He believes that Santa Ana is turning more and more every day to the use of the motor car and that with the proper men handling the situation the Hupmobile will prove as dominant here as elsewhere in California and throughout the entire country.

"Santa Ana is made up of wide awake, progressive people," remarked Mr. Henry, the new local distributor. "It is a rich, substantial district, and like similar communities all over the country it is fast turning to the motor car."

"I feel that there are many people hereabouts that have never heard the story of the Hupmobile. And that is to be my mission from this day forth. I want to meet and personally acquaint myself not only with prospective purchasers but all owners of Hupmobiles living in my territory. My entire establishment will be fitted to meet the necessities of the owner. My shop, my display room and my time will be at the disposal of car users and I am anxious to have all Hupmobile drivers feel that Santa Ana Hupmobile headquarters are at their disposal all the time."

The members of the Boys' Glee Club of the High School, spent a merry evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chapman, 1061 West Third street, yesterday.

Honoring the high school colors, the home was beautifully decorated in red and white, lilies and fuchsias being used in artistic bouquets throughout the rooms. Scarlet geranium petals were strewn over the snowy linen at the dining table, where the boys enjoyed a delicious two course supper, the prevailing color scheme being reproduced in the appetizing viands and after dinner mints.

Mrs. Chapman was ably assisted in serving by Lea Eckley, Ralph Cole and George Chapman, a trio of manly school boys.

The after dinner hours were whiled away with clever charades and Irish conundrums, the glee club also singing some of their favorite songs which were heartily enjoyed by the host and hostess.

Among those invited to share the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Chapman were Miss Mary Ely, the popular musical director, Ralph Beals, accompanist, Eugene Trago, Robert Hill, Homer and Harold Holzgrafe, Paul Plavan, Arthur Udder, Raymond Keeney, John Cannon, Frank Biggs, Joe Irvine, Arthur Shipley, Hugh Osborne, Floyd Fuller and Frank Chapman.

SEMI-ANNUAL BANQUET

Christian Endeavorers Close Successful Term Under Faithful Leader

The semi-annual banquet and business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church was held at the church Friday evening, March 26.

The crowd began to assemble about 6:30 and all enjoyed the half-hour of social fellowship. By 7 o'clock all had arrived and were then invited to the spacious dining room, where they very much enjoyed the three-course dinner prepared by Miss Eva Osborn and her faithful social committee. The three-course menu consisted of fruit cocktail, scalloped potatoes, tuna salad, pickles, olives, orange ice cream and coffee.

Following the dinner, the meeting was called to order by the president and the business of the evening was taken up.

On account of a special service at Tustin, Dr. Stevenson made his address to the Endeavorers first, and then excused himself for more important work. Following Dr. Stevenson's address, the reports of the various committees were given and each accepted with hearty applause.

Miss Zelma Burze, superintendent of the Junior Endeavor, reported the work of the Juniors for the past six months, which report was very encouraging.

The report of the Intermediate Endeavor Society, given by John Hawley, showed to the society the effect of the earnest labors which he and his wife are doing among the younger members of the church.

The president, Miss Daniel, after a few well-chosen remarks, thanking the members for their hearty co-operation and also their earnest efforts, called on the incoming president, J. W. Sauer, for a speech. Mr. Sauer then laid before the society the plans for the coming term which he with the help of God and the co-operation of each and every member, wishes to carry out successfully.

The meeting closed by the singing of the Glory song and by the repeating of the Christian Endeavor benediction. This past term of Christian Endeavor, under the faithful, persistent, consecrated leadership of Miss Estella Daniel, will long be remembered with pride by all the members, and has probably meant more to the young people of this church than has any other, and the society is unanimously thanking God for the opportunity they have had of working for Him under her guidance.

Distinguished Visitor

Concerning a distinguished lady and a delightful entertainer who is to appear in public at Tustin's beautiful new school auditorium Friday evening, April 9, the Riverside Press has this to say:

"Miss Ida K. Hinds of New York city, who is a cousin of Mrs. Miguel Estudillo, is a guest for the month at the Warrington. Miss Hinds, who is the noted Tennyson reader, has many friends on the Pacific coast, so her trip this season is more social than professional, but her admirers in this city hope to hear her in a program during her visit here.

"Miss Hinds is also a cousin of Mrs. George B. Cortelyou, wife of the former secretary of treasury, and is well known in Washington, where she was entertained by Mrs. Roosevelt during the latter's last year at the White House.

"Miss Hinds finds Riverside so beautiful that she is very sorry she did not arrive earlier that she might have passed a longer period of time here."

FOR MISS MURDY

Friends and Babies See Her on Her Birthday; She's 'Nineteen and Some Months'

Miss Jane Murdy had a birthday yesterday, and it is safe to say that a larger number of people were interested in that birthday than in any other birthday that has happened in Santa Ana this year, and Miss Murdy had a most delightful birthday party last night, given in her honor by Mr. and Mrs. John Beatty at their beautiful home on French street.

Miss Murdy, daughter of a surgeon in the English army, was one of the first nurses who entered the famous training school for nurses founded by Florence Nightingale at the end of the Crimean war. Her work as ministering angel to the sick and afflicted has led her far and wide into many interesting corners of the world, and among all sorts and conditions of people. And in every home she has visited are warm friends who love her for her gentle kindness and remarkable efficiency as a nurse, and for her all-around good comradeship as a friend. There isn't anybody just like Miss Murdy, and last night a large number of the friends who claim her after nearly thirty years of work—and a little play—in Santa Ana, gathered together at the Beatty home to tell her so.

Seventy summers have left her with the "merry heart that doeth good like medicine," and seventy winters have begun to sprinkle her hair with their snows, but they must have been mostly short years and happy ones, for such hearty vigor and never-ending activity are very seldom the attributes of seventy. Indeed, the honored guest at last night's birthday party has never been known to confess to more than "nineteen and some months," as a large placard bearing her picture, and placed above the mantel in the living room last night, announced.

Five hundred and twenty-seven babies have made their debut under Miss Murdy's personal guidance, and last night's guests included a number of these. Little Miss Eleanor Embree gave the following sweetly-worded welcome and birthday greeting: "To Miss Murdy:

"My message for today, I send; May you have birthdays without end! Good health be yours throughout the year.

With peace, contentment, ever near. May all the good that this world holds Be reaped upon you, Then when old, With good friends blest you'll know no fear.

For dread the passing of each year, "VIRGINIA B. EMBREE."

J. S. Rice of Tustin, in whose home Miss Murdy has been both nurse and friend for many long years, gave some of his very funniest stories and Mrs. Rice, whose beautiful voice her friends always so love to hear, gave several numbers. Mrs. Ella I. Fyfe, Miss Elizabeth Easton and Robert Paine sang delightfully. Mr. Paine's "Mother Mochree" proved an especial favorite, and at Miss Murdy's request was repeated later in the evening.

A number of daintily-gowned young girls assisted Mrs. Beatty and her daughters, Misses Irene and Edna, in serving refreshments of cakes and ices, after which Miss Irene Beatty, with a clever little original verse, gave to Miss Murdy a basket of Cecil Bruner roses, hidden among which was a gift which would not be discovered until its recipient had reached her home. But the little birthday gift was a check for just as many dollars as the guest of honor claimed years, each dollar coming from one of the babies whom she has cared for.

Miss Beatty's presentation verse follows:

You've heard of the old lady who lived in the shoe, Who had so many children she didn't know what to do.

Now, we know a dear lady whose children weren't few,

But her heart was so big she knew just what to do.

She played with them, and loved them, And nursed them when they were sick;

And old or young, big or little, she called them all "Dick."

Your friends here assembled have asked me to say

That we're glad you're "nineteen and some months" this birthday.

Our names we have written in this little book,

And whenever on its pages you happen to look,

Our love you will find—may all gladness be thine,

Is the wish of your friends of Auld Lang Syne.

The delightful evening came to a close with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Syne, and it wishes ever come true, Miss Murdy's life will be a long and happy one, for good wishes were showered upon her by the departing guests. The spacious rooms of the Beatty home never looked lovelier than they did last night, with their decorations of fragrant flowers, among which was a huge basket loaded with seventy perfect pink roses. And the many guests appreciated greatly the opportunity given them, through the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty, to share in honoring the birthday of a friend so greatly loved.

Delightful Evening Meeting

The social meeting of the Washington school Parent-Teachers' association held last evening in the Domestic Science building proved in every way a delightful occasion. The meeting had been planned with a view to meeting the fathers of the school and it was indeed gratifying to the teachers and the committee in charge to be able to welcome them as they came in goodly numbers, very evidently thoroughly pleased and interested in the plans and workings of the association. The room had been tastefully decorated and presented an animated and to the thoughtful eye, a most encouraging picture—upwards of ninety folk all interested in the same theme—"the child in the midst." With Mrs. Horace Fine presiding the following program was carried out:

Opening prayer; song by the fifth grade children, Miss McCoy, teacher; "The Boy Problem," by Rev. Paul G. Stevens; violin duet, Cleopatra Hill and Emma Harding; reading, "The Lost Word" (Van Dyke), by Mrs. John Clarkson; songs by the fifth grade children.

Each number was highly enjoyable, the work of the children being as always sweet and true. Rev. Stevens brought home in a vigorous way many wholesome thoughts for parents of boys and girls as well to ponder, putting forth a special plea for the father to make himself his own boy's best friend and chum. Rev. Stevens at the close of his talk presented the beautiful large "Peace Flag" purchased by the association to be the monthly prize for the grade having out the largest number of parents at the association meetings. The flag was greatly admired by all present and fell to the possession of the first grade. Miss Wagner, teacher, Mrs. Clarkson, as always when she appears, delighted her listeners. Her rendition of the beautiful reading, "The Lost Word," was thrilling and sweet.

After the program the audience gathered in groups where introductions were in order and animated conversations along lines both social and pedagogical were carried on while the grade mothers served delicious ice cream and dainty wafers. All expressed entire satisfaction with the evening's venture and hoped it might soon again be repeated.

Easter Cantata

The choir of the United Presbyterian church, assisted by a few of their friends will give the cantata "Darkness and Dawn," by Fred W. Peace, Easter Sunday at 3 p. m. The soloists will be Miss Freda Moesser, L. B. Babbitt, L. A. Galloway, J. Clifford Johnston and Walter Vierra. Twenty are in the choir.

Celebrates Birthday

The eighteenth birthday of Miss Mildred Heininger was gaily celebrated last evening at her beautiful home at 602 South Birch street.

Baskets of red geraniums combined with smilax prettily decorated the rooms where games and music were highly enjoyed by the young people.

Miss Leora Peters gave a beautiful piano solo; Miss Thelma Pippis pleased with several vocal selections and a trio composed of Kenneth Browne, Roy Criddle and Mathers MacKiehanan contributed to the pleasure of all by singing popular airs.

Delicious refreshments were served by the honoree and her mother before the close of the delightful evening, who all joined in showering Miss Heininger with wishes for many happy successive birthdays.

Among those present were Misses Thelma Cone, Mary Smith, Adella Merigold, Esther Heilbrunn, Vera Shoemaker, Myrtle Campbell, Marguerite May, Thelma Pippis, Leora Peters, Messrs. Claude Cathcart, George Johnson, Everett Cole, Wm. Gray, Carl Winodorf, George Smith, Wm. Johnson, Kenneth Browne, Mathers MacKiehanan, Roy Criddle, Wm. Butler, Louis McCullum, and Lowell Stevens.

College Students Home

Easter has been the signal for the home-coming of many college students who will spend their spring vacation with home folks and a large delegation has arrived from Pomona which seems to be exceedingly popular with the young people of Santa Ana.

Among the Pomona students are Misses Alice Clausen, Estelle Nisson, Louise Grubb, Alice Cranston, Georgia Smith, Helen Reinhaus, Margaret Roy, Catherine and Isabel Smiley, Mable Mansur, Elsie Wingood, Alberta Black, Louise Tubbs, Edna Beatty; Herbert Kendall, Lamont McFadden, Walter Stafford, Ralph Shallenburger and Walter Reeves.

From Occidental College come Misses Sophia Hardy, Lillian Walker, Laura Taylor, Nancy Elder, and Messrs. Carson Smart, Leroy Doig, Will Warren, Carson Smith, Chas. Tidball, Donald and Kenneth Smiley, while representatives from several other colleges of California are expected within the next week.

—Miss Ray Knight will receive a few beginners in piano. Terms reasonable. Can give references if required. 510 Cypress Ave. Pacific Phone 182.

AMUSEMENTS

At Clune's "Mother's Roses"—Saturday and Sunday, March 27-28. John Morrison, Wall street financier, is in the habit of bringing home to his wife daily a bunch of beautiful roses. Delevan, a recognized money king, meets Helen, the financier's daughter, upon whom he seems to immediately exert a hypnotic influence.

Delevan tries to get Helen to elope, but at the critical moment her mother's face appears to her in a vision and she refuses. The rascal then schemes to ruin the Morrisons through their holdings in railroad stocks.

Payne realizes if he can only locate them, it will throw the balance of power into his hands. He asks his father about them, but John Morrison remembers nothing of it. In despair, Payne is about to give up when the spirit of his mother appears and points straight at the family Bible. Between its leaves are found the five thousand shares.

Temple Theatre Three great feature productions are to be shown at the Temple Theatre. The first is little Mary Pickford in her latest success, "Miss Nell," which closes its engagement tonight; and for Sunday only, Bronson Howard's big hit, "Aristocracy," in five parts, featuring Tyrone Power.

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday a dandy five-reel comedy romance full of laughs and theme featuring the celebrated actor, John Emerson in his latest success, "The Bachelor's Romance."

We are selling these great trees every day at $5.00 each for one-year budding, and $10 for a two-year bud, and if the Register containing our number should be held by anyone who buys a tree between now and next Wednesday, April 3, it will entitle him to the return of his money upon presentation of the paper at our sales yard, southeast corner Main and First streets, Santa Ana. O. J. GRAPFEN.

HE ATE SOME EGGS AND TOOK SHOES WITH HIM

The man who robbed W. O. Bridgeford's house on South McClay street yesterday must have an awful liking for eggs. He took seven dozen eggs from the house in the morning, along with a suit of clothes, a hat, an overcoat and a pair of shoes. Yesterday afternoon two Mexicans at work along a fence near also found the entire haul hidden in the weeds, except two dozen and ten eggs and the pair of shoes. Presumably the fellow who did the stealing made out a meal.

ESCAPES FROM PRISON; HARASSED BY SPIES

A large company were present at the Intermediate School last night to hear the lecture of Metre Swartowskowsky, a former lieutenant of the Russian army, who told of his thrilling escape from a life's sentence at Siberia, where he claims to have been sent because he refused to obey his superior officer, who ordered him to command his company to fire upon a band of his countrymen who were on their way to the palace of the Czar to plead for justice.

He told of the tortures endured by those sentenced to the Kara prison, the living tomb from which he escaped in a desperate stampede of prisoners during a church service.

The speaker declared that he is even now harassed by spies and his life's story proved to be very interesting, though rather spectacular to his audience.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
BOND COMPANY
MAY CONCLUDE
FINISH BRIDGE

Is Stated That Bids to Complete Abandoned Job Are Being Secured

This morning Mr. Davis, a representative of the Chicago Bonding and Surety Company, stated to the Board of Supervisors that the surety company will probably finish the Olive bridge, the contract upon which was thrown up by Truone & Stoecker, the San Diego contractors. Davis stated that he had received one bid that looks good, and expects to receive others. He believes that the company can get the job finished within the contract price. If the surety company reaches a conclusion soon, a special meeting of the board will be called.

Otherwise the matter will come up on April 6.

Contract Is Let
A contract was let today to George Wiegand for building 2.5 miles on the Anaheim-Stanton-Cypress road north of Stanton. The bid was $7382.95. Other bids were: Fred Hoffman, $8073.05; Hart and Ducey, $7865.19; Oscar Ford, $9236.27.

Goes to District
A communication was received from Minnie M. Wilson, secretary of the Woman's Circle Club of Santa Ana, protesting against allowing rubbish to be dumped near the Fifth street bridge. Since the rubbish is being dumped on the right of way of the Newbert Protection District and not on county property, the communication was referred to the district.

A Former Superior Judge
Seeks City Attorneyship

G. H. SCOTT
Candidate for City Attorney

The subject of this sketch was born in the state of Illinois, March 3, 1861. In the year 1880 removed with his parents to the state of Nebraska. In the year 1882 returned to the state of Iowa, worked his way through college, taught school, and held the position of city superintendent of schools up to the year 1894, when he was admitted to the practice of law in the Supreme Court of Iowa, and the following year admitted to the Federal court. Continued the active practice of law up to the year 1901, when he was elected JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT AT COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA, and continued to act in that capacity until the year 1907, when he was appointed special counsel for the state of Iowa under the Hon. Webb Byers, the Attorney-General of that state, to prosecute certain land claims in the United States Court, growing out of changes made in the course of the Missouri river. In the same year was appointed special counsel by the city of Council Bluffs to rewrite, revise, and compile and have re-enacted the laws and ordinances of the city of Council Bluffs and to publish the same in volume form of more than 600 pages for the use of said city. In the year 1909 removed to Southern California. Returned east the following year to complete several important cases pending in the states of Colorado and Iowa, and returned in 1911, to California, where he has since lived, and in the spring of 1912 took up his residence in Santa Ana, where he has continued to reside and there resumed the practice of law.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF SANTA ANA

At the request of a number of our citizens some few weeks ago I announced my candidacy for the position of City Attorney. I am highly mindful of the fact that the incumbent of said office should be clean, honest, competent and industrious, and should have at all times a disposition to vigorously enforce the law to the interests and welfare of our citizenship.

I claim to have had unusual experience in the line of work above indicated in the drafting and enforcement of the law in a city of some 30,000 people and wherein the wants and needs and laws and the objects to be attained were quite similar to what they are in this city.

I am not entirely concerned whether I shall be your next City Attorney; but I am deeply concerned, as a citizen and taxpayer in a modest way, that we should grow not only in numbers but in civic development and the character of citizenship regardless of the fact whether or not you shall see fit to entrust to me the position I have just indicated.

In my entire experience as an attorney I have never accepted a retainer or a fee of any kind from any client as against the moral and public welfare and the general public good of the community in which I have lived, realizing that there is a limit at which an attorney's professional zeal should cease and his duties as a citizen prevail.

I came here three years ago to make our beautiful little city my future home in which to rear my family, and am much concerned that the surroundings and environments should be congenial to all the attributes of good citizenship.

Later in the campaign I may make a few further observations upon some of the points at issue, but at this time will conclude with the statement that I will discharge with fidelity and to the credit of myself and all concerned any trust you may deem fit to place with me. That it is with some degree of pride that I can point to my past record both in public and private life and which I can fully support with a general approbation of several thousand people from the state of Iowa who are now residents of Southern California.

From among the estimable citizens who are at this time soliciting our suffrage in the coming election we should be able to fill the different departments of the city with men who are clean, honest, competent and industrious, and who have a disposition and purpose and object to administer the affairs of the city skillfully and economically to the credit and pride of its citizenship.

WESTMINSTER
DEDICATES ITS GRADE SCHOOL

Impressive exercises marked the formal dedication of the new $15,000 grade school at Westminster beginning at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

One of the largest crowds that ever assembled at one time at progressive Westminster was on hand to help make the dedication the complete success it was. Parents, teachers, business men, ranchers and others turned out en masse.

Dean Johnson officiated capably at the exercises which opened with a flag presentation, Architect J. Flood Walker of Santa Ana being the donor.

The flag presentation was followed by a salute to the flag by nearly 100 Westminster school children. Patriotic songs, and an extremely interesting speech by Prof. A. E. Paine, principal of Huntington Beach high school, followed.

These exercises, which were held in front of the handsome building, were concluded by other ceremonies in the auditorium of the school.

The school will be opened two weeks from Monday, the pupils enjoying a vacation at present.

Nagel Wants Coin Used to Repair Building for Tenant
Who Did Not Come

Today A. Nagel of Anaheim brought suit against the Universal Tire Company, John H. Cook and John W. Walls for $478.18. He states that last September he was assured by an agreement that the Universal Tire Company would occupy his building in the triangle formed by West and Broadway streets and the S. P. track at Anaheim, and he spent $291.76 in making repairs. For T. S. Grimshaw, who furnished materials, he asks $194.18.

Permit Given

Today Judge Thomas issued an order allowing the United Presbyterian church to sell its lot at the northwest corner of Mortimer and Fourth streets.

Charge Inebriacy

Clyde Morris is under arrest on a charge of being habitually intoxicated. Monday it will be decided whether or not he shall be sent to Patton.

For the Defendant

Judge Thomas gave judgment to Ed Epperly and Erwin Epperly and Erwin Greathouse in the action brought against them by R. L. Draper. The defendants had a sub-lease on the building at the northwest corner of Fourth and French. Draper asserted that it was a mouth to mouth lease, and that the defendants had sold articles they had agreed not to sell. It developed that Draper had sold the place, and the court held that agreement not to sell certain articles was not now binding, and that Epperly and Greathouse had a year's lease from last October. Daniel and Daniel represented the plaintiff and Clyde Bishop the defendants.

Suit for a Ford

T. B. Talbert and C. H. Hoge of Huntington Beach are suing Walter Revell for possession of a Ford or for judgment for $350. L. W. Blodgett is attorney for the plaintiff.

DAKOTANS ARE CHARMED WITH ORANGE COUNTY

Delighted with Southern California in general and Orange county in particular and determined to return to this section at their earliest possible convenience, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Bigelow, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Simmons, of Flandreau, South Dakota, left Santa Ana this morning after a visit of several months.

While in this city the South Dakota party made its headquarters at the Cadillac garage. A Cadillac car, which was shipped to Southern California by Bigelow and Simmons was used by them to tour the South. The car was taken to Los Angeles this morning and from there will be shipped back to South Dakota.

Bigelow is the cashier of the First National Bank of Flandreau and Simmons is connected with a farm machinery and automobile house at Flandreau.

"We're coming back," said Simmons as he and his party departed. "We've seen a great deal of Southern California but have found nothing that impresses us so favorably as Santa Ana and Orange county."

"We see now why they call Orange county the 'richest little county.' Yes, we're coming back."

IN THE JUSTICE COURTS

JOURNEY ONE OF ADVENTURE

Trio That Drove Stolen Automobile to Nelson, Ariz.,
Left Wide Trail

When City Marshal Kellenberger of Anaheim went to Nelson, Ariz., to get the automobile stolen from Paul Frahm of Anaheim, he found the trail left by H. R. Wood, Tom King and Jack Richardson to be marked plainly. Nearly every officer from Needles to Nelson was looking for the trio of youths.

The city marshal at Needles was worked by them for $3.50. Lodging house troubles at Kingman were skipped by them without trouble.

At one place they soaked a man's trunk to get money enough to pay toll. From the trunk they extracted an alarm clock, later sold by them for forty cents. They drove the automobile off a grade, and had a lot of trouble getting it to run. They sawed off the back seat and traded it to an Indian for moccasins. At Nelson they sold what was left of the machine to the justice of the peace for $12.

Wood and Richardson were arrested at Fullerton, King at Needles.

Sent to Jail

Elmer Gray, one of two men arrested at Anaheim after they had burglarized Justice Howard's garage, stealing a law book and some negatives, pleaded guilty to stealing a pair of shoes from Federman's store, and was sent to jail for six months.

THE CHARACTER AND IMPORTANCE OF THE CITY CLERK'S OFFICE

—Due to the fact that many people do not realize the importance and responsibility of a city clerk, I desire to say a few words.

In cities of the fifth class the city clerk has also the duties of a city auditor, as he issues all warrants and keeps a record of all receipts and disbursements; so in reality the city clerk is the bookkeeper for a $7,305-$845 corporation in the city of Santa Ana, as the assessed valuation of the city is that amount. The city clerk has all the duties in a city that a county auditor has in a county.

The city clerk is the secretary of the Board of Trustees, and records all the proceedings, ordinances and resolutions.

When a city has an election the greater amount of the responsibility and work falls on the city clerk.

The city clerk issues all city licenses and this is no small duty, due to the fact that so many solicitors come to Santa Ana and try to escape the license by claiming that they do not come under the ordinance, so the clerk finds that he must be well posted in order to give due justice to the taxpayers along this line.

My experience as a county officer, I believe, is of value to the city clerk's office. As evidence, I will state a case: In looking up the records I find that four years ago the city paid the sum of $352.75 for printing the ballots for the city election; I considered this amount excessive; as the law provides that the clerk shall provide for the ballots, I advertised for bids for furnishing the ballots, and as a result the ballots for the election April 12th will cost the city $70.75, a saving to the city of $282. The records are the evidence in this case.

If returned to the office at the coming election, I shall continue to run the clerk's office to the advantage of the taxpayers and continue to disappoint any person that may try to get by my official duties for their personal gain.

I shall also put in an audit system that will equal that of any city in the state, for it is an easy matter for an auditor to see that Santa Ana has outgrown the present system in the office.

Hoping that I may have your sup-

RAILWAY MEN
VISIT VALLEY

Yesterday a party of Salt Lake officials visited the Santa Ana Valley, making a tour of the county from Santa Ana in company with J. J. Tavis, the local agent. The visit of the officials again started the story that the Salt Lake contemplates building a road from Los Angeles through this county to San Diego.

Those who were here were F. A. Wann, general traffic manager; T. C. Peck, general passenger agent, and F. H. Adams, general agent.

LEGS BRUISED WHEN HE COLLIDES WITH A FULLERTON AUTO

When Robert L. Smith on a bicycle bumped into an auto on East Fourth street near the Southern Pacific last night about 7 o'clock, he received severe bruises on both legs. Smith was in a hurry to get to a barber shop, and cut across in front of an electric car. An auto, driven by D. Cook of R. D. 2, Fullerton, who has a lease on the San Joaquin, was almost upon him. Cook set his brakes, and had the machine almost at a standstill before Smith's bicycle went under the front wheels. Smith's momentum threw him against the fender. Cook insisted on taking Smith to a doctor and doing a good deal more than Smith, who did not blame him in the slightest, thought was necessary.
